Complementary policing in Hungary and Civil Guard

László Christián, Pál Kardos
Public safety and security:

- Public safety and security: social cooperation, collective work
- Mono policing >>> plural policing,
- New players: state and market players, individuals, associations, etc.
- Characteristics of their tasks and contributions, authorisation, competences: “New police forces”,
- Primary field of activity: crime prevention.

(see: Adam Crawford, Stuart Lister, Collin Rogers, Ian Loader, Andrej Sotlar)
Public safety & security - civil safety & security

- Public safety & security
- Civil safety & security
The Civil Guard

- 64,000 Civil Guard officers, 1600 junior Civil Guard officers (age group 14-18 years), 2020 associations
- Since 1991, the importance of the Civil Guard has gradually increased; by now, it is the strategic partner of the Government and the Police
- Voluntary work performed to the benefit of society, with an increasingly diversified range of tasks
- The 2011 Law No. CLXV on the Civil Guard and the Civil Guard Activities is considered a “milestone”
- The most organised and largest civil society organisation of social crime prevention
- The Civil Guard’s main mission: serving the purpose of crime prevention by improving citizens’ perceived safety and security.
The legal status of the Civil Guard officer

- Civil Guard officer: minimum age 18 years, capable of acting, no criminal record, voluntarily performs the duties of a Home Guard officer, considers the service and ethical regulations referring to Civil Guard officers as compulsory, and the Civil Guard officer successfully passes the examination following the basic course.

- A person fulfilling public tasks without any administrative authority;

- Enjoys enhanced protection of criminal law while at the same time having a greater level of responsibility in terms of criminal law;

- The Civil Guard consists of local associations, regional (capital, county) Home Guard Federations, as well as the Hungarian Civil Guards Association.
The secret of efficiency is close cooperation.

Participants:

- Budapest Metropolitan Police Headquarters (BRFK)
- Municipality of Budapest Law Enforcement Directorate (FÖRI)
- National Directorate General for Disaster Management (FKI)
Budapest Civil Guard Association (BPSZ), continuation

- Member organisations: 49
- Members: 1665
- Office hours: 314,408
- In collaboration with police officers: 87,154
National University of Public Service (NKE), Civil Guard University

- Background (National University of Public Service (NKE) - Hungarian Civil Guard Association (OPSZ)): Civil Guard Academy
- Serving the university community
- Protection of the Ludovika Campus, Smart University
- Getting acquainted with the activities of a Civil Guard officer
- Exciting adventure, challenge, useful professional experience, great community, noble duty!
Thank you for listening.

Vielen Dank für Ihre Aufmerksamkeit!